Southern States Coop Membership Day Set For July 20

Report of elections of local Advisory Board, Farm Home Advisory Committee members and operations reports will highlight the Southern States Cooperative's membership day for Coleman and Sons, on July 20. The event will be held at the store and will begin at 1 p.m. The business session is slated to start at 2 p.m.

"The Membership Day," according to manager Ronald Coleman, "will give patrons and members the opportunity to become better acquainted with our facilities, products and services. The local election is being held prior to the meeting with members voting by mail ballots. Members who have not marked their mail ballot should do so and deposit it in the ballot box prior to the beginning of the meeting, so their vote will be counted. All stockholder members are particularly urged to attend the business session."

H. W. Coleman of Pamplin will serve as chairman of the local meeting.

G. M. Slater of Richmond, a member of Southern States Cooperative's regional staff, will report on the over-all Southern States operations. His report will also discuss the cooperative corporation's role in the free enterprise system. In a cooperative individual proprietors join together to form a corporation whose objective is to provide goods and services that these proprietors cannot provide as efficiently as individuals. Cooperatives are different in that the independent businessmen, the farmers who own and control the organization are its primary users. Another difference is that the main objective of the organizaiton is to serve the needs of the owners and not to accumulate profits.

Theme of the meeting will be, "Cooperatives - Free Enterprise with A Difference."

There will be special recognition for local board and Farm Home Advisory Committee members who retire this year.

Nominees for the local board are: John P. Alvis, Jr., Concord; H. S. Fleshman, Red House; Calvin Harris, Gladstone and Jimmy Tweedy of Rustburg.

Ladies nominated for the Farm Home Advisory Committee are: Mrs. T. W. Harrison, Mrs. Carter Martin, Appomattox; Mrs. A. B. Hunter of Red House and Mrs. Stephen Thompson of Concord.
